

Because YOU are an educational professional—
Children learn subject matter.

Because YOU are an educational professional—
Children learn the import of community.

Because YOU are an educational professional—
Children learn their role in a democratic society.

Because YOU are an educational professional—
All children learn they are loved.

Because WE were educational professionals—
We understand how important what you do is
and we appreciate you.

Please enjoy a sweet from the group that would love to help you learn how you can continue to impact the world
when you begin your next autobiographical chapter.

Know you are loved!
