

SDRSP Summer Board Meeting 2017

The meeting was called to order by Bill Zubke. The secretary's report was presented and approved. The treasurer reported on our current balance and a discussion ensued concerning changing our Bank of Record. It was decided to do so. Committee reports were presented. Under mature business, a recap of the convention was held with excellent discussion of the purpose of the 7:30 local officers' meeting (it will be revamped) and the amount of honorariums. The summary of the evaluations for the convention was presented by the Membership Chair showing an overwhelming approval for both the location and the programs. Further discussion on the reminiscent essay was held as well as when we should discontinue sending newsletters to those who are delinquent in dues. New Business included the proposed slate of officers for 2018-2020 (available to be perused on the home page at SDRSP.ORG). The President Elect (unable to attend) e-mailed that we had in the past rotated west, east, central which will put the 2019 convention in Pierre. Cathy Anderson from Sioux Falls, the convention chair for the 2018 convention, reported that all is in readiness for us to meet at the Ramkota Hotel on May 1, 2, 2018, and celebrate the theme, Hooray For Hollywood! The next board meeting is scheduled for May 31, 2018 at the Ramkota
