

“Why My Grandparent Should be the AARP SD Grandparent of the Year”

By: Lexis Siemonsma
Chester, SD

I love my grandma Emily more than anything. She is my heartbeat in my heart and the brain I need in my head. I truly enjoy every moment I am with her. Grandma is the most loving, caring, and fun-spirited person in the world.

Gama is super cool because she is full of kindness! My Gama spoils me. She makes me feel so special, and she shows me how special I am when she gives me a hug and a kiss. She doesn't need to buy me things because I know how much I mean to her. Grandma spends time with each and every grandkid all the time and that includes me. My grandma laughs at all my jokes, she says I am pretty. She loves all 7 of us, but loves me more; I know it.

Another reason she is the best grandma is because she likes to go to church. She shows me the importance of faith. My grandma plays organ, sings, and sometimes directs the choir. When she plays organ it sounds beautiful. She sings like an angel. My grandma never misses going to church. Grandma supports others in good and bad situations. She gives baked goods to those who are sad in order to cheer them up.

My grandma is an extremely hard worker. She used to be a second grade teacher at Chester Area School, but now she works on the farm. She helps my dad and grandpa with the work. She drives a lot of tractors and trucks to help out. Gama Emily bakes a lot of cookies and brownies and makes the best banana bread ever. My grandma makes lunch and supper for dad, grandpa, and I and brings it to us. She does way more than she needs to do.

The final reason she is my favorite grandma is because she is active with me. Grandma runs with me and goes on two mile walks with me. She also helps me practice playing volleyball, basketball, softball, and more. She chases cows, helps feed the cows, and helps them take their medicine. She helps me check fences and helps me practice chasing cows into the yards. She encourages me to keep going.

Clearly, my Grandma Emily is amazing and wonderful and, I cannot live without her. She is a hard worker and loves me. I am pretty sure I love her to the moon and back to infinity. My Gama Emily is so nice that she would not ever hurt a flea, well maybe a bug or two. She is absolutely wonderful and I probably would not know my own name without her. I love my grandma a lot. I hope I grow up to be just like her, because she is the BEST!!!!