Wednesday morning at 7:30, President Ron Riherd called the unit presidents' meeting to order with the Pledge of Allegiance and the roll call of units. There were 13 units that were present. Ron reminded units of being able to apply for $100 membership promotion. The forms were passed out by Treasurer Pat Johnson.

The memorial service began the morning session.

Secretary reports were read and approved.

Cathy Zubke explained the membership list codes and how the unit total was achieved. Total members are 911, down 60 from last year.

Bill Zubke explained the change in by-laws.

Cathy Zubke will leave the membership committee after 14 years, Paula Brakke will take her place.

Ron Riherd invited everyone to next year's convention in Deadwood at the Lodge. The Executive Board Meeting is on July 15 at 10:30 am at the Pizza Ranch in Fort Pierre. The Regional Workshops are August 13 in Rapid City at the AARP room at Rushmore Mall at 10:00 am with President Ron Riherd; the Regional Workshop in Brookings is on August 13 at 1:00 pm at the Touchdown Jesus Church with President Elect Rhonda Preller conducting the meeting.

The newsletter for the Convention should come out by June 1 so everyone can be informed on what took place.

Treasurer Pat Johnson presented the budget information. A budget of $20,800 was approved for the 2019-2020 year. The Scholarship Fund has $11,237.69 after paying the two $1000 scholarships for this year. The Horace Mann Account as of 4/29/19 is $40,093.75. Her report was accepted by the membership.

Olli (classes for the elderly) was discussed for retired teachers in some of the cities.

Eric Gaikowski gave information on how we could bring Retired School Personnel and AARP members together. It would help each group gain more members. Let people know that NRTA is a Parent Organization of the AARP and how we can do programs together to benefit all.

Meeting adjourned.

Rob Wylie talked about our retirement, and it was recognized as Rob Wylie Day, as he will retire in December. He assured us that the retirement was in good hands.

The grandparents, parents and student were all recognized at the noon luncheon while she read her essay.

The Traveling Trophy went to Black Hills.

See everyone in Deadwood in 2020.
